BEGINNINGS HOSTS LARGEST STUDENT GROUP EVER

Pitt-Bradford welcomed more than 400 incoming freshman — its largest group ever — last week at Beginnings orientation. Incoming students had a chance to live in residence halls on campus and meet new friends.

Parents and family members had a chance to explore campus and the surrounding community.

CAMPUS POLICE CHIEF RECOGNIZED FOR SERVICE

Dan Songer, chief of campus police, was honored by the Northeast Colleges and Universities Security Association at its annual conference held earlier this month in Groton, Conn.

NECUSA awarded Songer the Lawrence W. Joy Award for Outstanding Service, which goes to a member who has contributed to the association. More details.
