PITT-BRADFORD NAMED A 'BEST IN THE NORTHEAST' COLLEGE

For the sixth consecutive year, The Princeton Review has recognized Pitt-Bradford as one of the best schools in the Northeast.

"This sixth consecutive recognition as one of the region's best is yet additional evidence of our strength and prominence when compared to other colleges," said Dr. Livingston Alexander, Pitt-Bradford president. "This is truly a reflection of the hard work and dedication of our faculty and staff and the support we receive from surrounding communities." More details.

FREE TUITION FOR POST-9/11 VETERANS

Veterans who have served active duty in the military since Sept. 11, 2001, may be able to attend Pitt-Bradford for free or greatly reduced cost thanks to the new Department of Veterans Affairs Post-9/11 GI Bill, which takes effect Aug. 1.

"The GI Bill is going to help out quite a bit," said Army veteran Tim Lawson. More details.
