LONGSTANDING ENROLLMENT GOAL MET

Pitt-Bradford has reached its longstanding enrollment goal of 1,500 full-time equivalent students and also shattered previous enrollment records, including having its largest student body and biggest freshman class.

“This is a magnificent accomplishment for our campus and for our region,” Dr. Livingston Alexander, president, said of reaching the 1,500 FTE goal. [More details.]

ECONOMICS PROFESSOR CONDUCTS RESEARCH IN INDIA

Dr. Shailendra Gajanan, associate professor of economics, spent his summer studying the effects of a tropical contagious disease on the economy of his native Chennai, India.

Gajanan worked with a faculty member and graduate students from the University of Madras to perform a cost-benefit analysis. [More details.]
