KORESH DANCE COMPANY BRINGS MODERN DANCE TO BROMELEY

Koresh Dance Company, hailed as "contemporary in style and sophisticated in technique" by the L.A. Times, will take to the stage tonight at Pitt-Bradford.

The Philadelphia-based troupe will perform at 7:30 p.m. in the Bromeley Family Theater in Blaisdell Hall. Tickets are $26 and $22 for the public and $11 and $9 for students. The concert is part of the Prism series, formerly known as the Season Subscription Series. More information.

MCCABE CHOSEN FOR ‘BEST ESSAYS’ LIST

An essay written by Dr. Nancy McCabe, associate professor of writing, was among those chosen for the Best American Essays 2009 notable list.

"While it didn't get a reprint, my essay made the list," said McCabe, who directs the writing program at Pitt-Bradford. More information.
