SPRING SPECTRUM SERIES TO BEGIN WITH MLK DAY EVENTS

Playwright Sam Kelley, author of the nationally acclaimed play “Pill Hill,” will kick off the spring term Spectrum Series at Pitt-Bradford. Most Spectrum events are free.

Kelley will read from “Pill Hill” and two new works at noon Jan. 12 in the KOA Speer Electronics Lobby of Blaisdell Hall.

“Pill Hill” is a play about African-American steel workers in Chicago, where it has been staged three times, most recently last summer. More details.

SPRING BREAK TRIP PLANNED TO MAYAN GUATEMALA

The 7th annual Maya Archaeology Spring Break Trip, led by Pitt-Bradford assistant professor of anthropology Isabelle Champlin, will be held from March 6-13.

Each year the trip explores ancient Mayan ruins. This year’s trip will be to highland Guatemala, where Mayan peoples have retained their cultural traditions and ethnic identity for centuries. More details.

NEWSLETTER SPOTLIGHT

* 13 graduate from MSW program at Pitt-Bradford. More details.
* Steinberg named director of environmental studies program. More details.
* Buliga promoted to associate professor with tenure. More details.

PANTHER ATHLETIC CORNER

Visit the Athletics Web site for more of the latest news.

Jan. 6 — Women’s and men’s basketball at Penn State Behrend
Jan. 9 — Women’s and men’s basketball at Franciscan University
Jan. 11 — Women’s and men’s basketball vs. Penn State Altoona, 6 and 8 p.m., KOA Arena
Jan. 23 — Swimming at Grove City College/ Penn State Behrend

Join the Panther Athletic Club!

CAMPUS EVENTS

Jan. 9 — Mark Twain Live, 7:30 p.m., Bromeley Family Theater, $10 for students.
Jan. 10 — 10,000 Maniacs benefit concert, 7 p.m., Bromeley Theater, $20 for students.

For more events, see our calendar.

IMPRESSIVE DATES

Jan. 18 — University closed for Martin Luther King Jr.’s birthday.
Jan. 20 — Last day to drop a course.
Feb. 5-6 — Winter Weekend activities.
Feb. 13 — Spring Admissions Open House.

Access student accounts here.

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.
Questions or comments? E-mail us at econnections@webmail.upb.pitt.edu or call 814-362-0248.