Rudolph Sing-along

Pitt-Bradford's Vocal Art Ensemble, directed by Dr. John Levey, lead a holiday-themed concert and sing-along in Blaisdell Hall this month. Click below to check it out.

Alumni Student Dinners

Interested in hosting an alumni event? The Student Alumni Association invites you to participate in the third annual Dinner with a Panther event. Alumni host dinners with current students to promote a sense of connectedness between students, the University, and its alumni.

Dinners can be home-cooked, catered, or restaurant style, but should be held within a 20 mile radius of campus. Themes are welcomed (think location, athletics, arts, etc.), and hosting at least five student guests is encouraged.

For more information on how to organize an event, contact Lindsay Retchless.

To host an alumni dinner, click the form to the right.

Snow Cam

As Pitt-Bradford Alumni, many of our memories have one thing in common: snow. Whether it is a late October dusting, the snow globe effect in December, or the spring slush, snow is often a topic of conversation on campus.

Check out what you're missing this winter, and all year around, by clicking on the live feed shot below.

New Year's Alumni Resolutions

All too often, New Year's resolutions are distant memories by Spring Break. This year, make your resolution count by giving the gift of knowledge to future Pitt-Bradford alumni.

Your donation provides students with scholarships, supplies nursing labs and broadcasting studios with up-to-date equipment, and allows Pitt-Bradford to grow and prepare students for their future careers.

For more information about giving, click below.

Update Your Alumni Information

Don't be left behind. Update your alumni information to receive the latest news about Pitt-Bradford, events and your fellow alumni.

Also, become a fan of Pitt-Bradford on Facebook to stay connected with your alma mater.
