Favorite Pitt Memory: "Doc Madden's biology class—no one had a tough, earthy style like she did. I also enjoyed Dr. Eric Nakjavani."

Alumni featured in Baily's Beads

Baily's Beads, Pitt-Bradford's award-winning literary magazine, has added a bit of flare to its 2010 edition. Revealed at the Unveiling Reception held on January 20, the new Baily's Beads offers a variety of creative nonfiction pieces, poetry and, for the first time ever, a children's story, a spoken performance piece, a collaborative poem and an interrobang, a new punctuation mark combining the question mark and exclamation point.
