Alumni In Action!

Erica Vogt ’04, currently an elementary teacher, had a unique opportunity that few get to experience. Becoming a participant in the “Teacher to Ranger to Teacher” program, Erica would help encourage young people to learn about their national parks. “I loved taking visitors on hikes and teaching them about the wonders of the area,” she said.

We’re Thankful for You...

At this time of year, each of us pause and reflect with gratitude on the many blessings that have been bestowed upon us, our families, our friends and our nation. At Pitt-Bradford, we add to that list our many devoted alumni of whom we are so very proud, and who have been unwavering in their loyalty and support. Know that your Alma Mater never ceases to admire the lives you have gone on to live in your careers, in your families and in your communities. I have been at the college for a long enough time that I have had the good pleasure of coming to know most of you, and for that I have been most fortunate and will always be grateful.

On behalf of all of us at the college, I wish to take this opportunity to express our deepest thanks for your continued commitment to Pitt-Bradford and for representing your Alma Mater so admirably in the lives you live and in the work you do. Best wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving and for an enjoyable December holiday season and New Year.

Sincerely,
Dr. Jim Evans
