Alumni and Family Weekend ‘11

For those of you who couldn’t make it to Pitt-Bradford for Alumni and Family Weekend, here’s what you missed!

Quite a few of our friends were honored, including Ryan Race—Distinguished Volunteer Award, and Dr. Shailendra Gajanan, associate professor of economics—Teaching Excellence Award. Two new members were inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame: basketball player Matt Barnes and volleyball player Missy Wahlberg.

Glendorn Bondieu Lake Resort hosted a soiree for visiting alumni, serving dinner and drinks from its scenic resort.

Alumni In Action

Dr. Larry Schardt ‘72-’74, a peace-sign-flashing, warm-hearted alumnus and professor in the environmental studies program, has been published in "Chicken Soup for the Soul : Find Your Happiness: 101 Stories about Finding Your Purpose, Passion, and Joy."

Schardt, affectionately known as Rock ‘n Roll Larry, is an alumni legend and dedicated Pitt-Bradford friend. He recently established the Dr. Larry “Rock ‘n Roll!!!” Schardt Scholarship in hopes to help give young people the ability to go to school.

Students, alumni, faculty, and friends are invited to enjoy Dr. Schardt’s presentation and book signing on Wednesday, Nov. 30, at 7 p.m. in the Bromley Family Theater. The Chicken Soup for the Soul books will be sold at the event, for the discounted price of $8 each.

Spring Break Destination—Belize

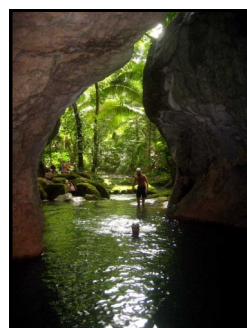

Alumni need a break, too! Explore the beauty of Belize on a seven-day travel course; ‘Caves and Cayes.’ will introduce you to the jungles, ancient ruins, caves, and shrines of what was once a heavily populated Mayan community.

A few of the planned destinations include the Cahal Pech ruins, San Ignacio, the Xunantunich ruins, Caye Ambergris, San Pedro, and Caracol.

Students, alumni, faculty and friends are welcomed to join the adventure, which will take place Saturday, March 3, through Saturday, March 10, 2012 .

The fee is $1,200, plus airfare; the deadline to pay is Feb. 3, 2012.
