Remembering

Denny Lowery '63 - '65

Debbie Lowery, Denny '63-'65, Bill Krieg '64-'66 and Tim Fannin '78

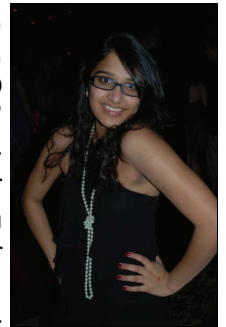

As you know, this section is normally reserved for our Alumni in Action portion of the newsletter; however, we have decided to pay our respects to Denny Lowery, who passed away on June 29, 2010. If there was ever an alumnus in action, it was he.

Lowery began his studies at Pitt-Bradford in 1963 as a member of our inaugural class. He became the first Student Government Association president and helped organize the first phone-a-thon fundraiser, which is still in practice today. Although he later transferred to Pitt-Oakland in 1965 and graduated in 1967 with a bachelor of science in biology, Lowery's heart still remained with Pitt-Bradford. His experiences led to him to help organize and become a member of the Pitt-Bradford Alumni Association (PBAA) in 1993, becoming the first alumni representative to serve as a PBAA board member. He was elected the first president of the PBAA and remained an active member until 2001. Read more...

Broadening Our Horizons

Nuwangi Dias, Sri Lanka

This month we are featuring Nuwangi Dias, a junior biology major, who traveled to Kandy, Sri Lanka, to visit friends and family and to do a little sight seeing. Unlike Alicia Hooks, Dias' trip was not a part of any study abroad program. Upon completing her sophomore year of college, Dias wanted to take a vacation and decided to visit her aunt in Sri Lanka for the month of May.

Dias, whose immediate family lives in Canada, chose to visit Sri Lanka because she hasn't seen some of her extended family in more than nine years. Although Dias seized the opportunity to catch up with family, she also took the time to appreciate and learn about some of the area's cultural assets. She visited Dalada Maligawa, which is known as the Temple of Tooth. Read more...
