Intercultural Competency via Approved Study Abroad Program or International Field Experience (3 or more credits)
International Affairs majors are required to gain foreign language competency by participating in an approved study abroad program or international field experience. Students may study abroad during the fall, spring, or summer terms. If planning on fulfilling this requirement by studying abroad while at Jamestown Community College, students should consult with the JCC Coordinator of Global Education as well as their JCC advisor in planning their course of study. In lieu of studying abroad, International Affairs majors may participate in a directed research, directed study, or internship experience which is international in scope. If planning on fulfilling this requirement while at Jamestown Community College, students should consult with their JCC advisor as to which type of experience would meet this requirement and best serve their professional interests and career goals.

Foreign Language Study (0 to 6 credits):
International Affairs majors are required to gain foreign language competency in preparing for careers and graduate study in which foreign language competency is often used as a criterion in hiring and admissions decisions.

- This requirement can be met via any of the following credit-bearing options:
  - 1 semester of language study during a study abroad program
  - 2 semesters of elementary-level language study in one language
  - 2 semesters of language study of two different languages (1 semester in each language)
  - Student who has passed at least 1 semester of language study at the intermediate level or higher (students may also count such intermediate or advanced language courses as interdisciplinary electives for the International Affairs major)

- This requirement can be met via either of the following non-credit-bearing options, by permission of the program director: bilingual student if testing in at intermediate level or student who has studied at a secondary-level institution or university outside the United States, in a non-English language.
